

Light up the night

This country house has been decked with 10,000 LED lights. No need to worry about the cost to the environment – or your pocket – at around just £3 a day to run.

The Italian tree

So called because it's decked out in red, white and green. The fine ribbons are actually from Belgium, while the feathers a departure from the traditional. The glass baubles are exclusive to the Christmas Decorators and Harrods and are hand-blown by Krebs in Germany. Cost: around £1300.

Traditional banister

Cinnamon sticks, pine cones and slices of orange adorn the banister, alongside evergreen and sumptuous ribbons. Cost: around £20 a foot or between £6-700 for a whole banister.

A special Santa

This beautiful glass tree decoration is hand-blown, then hand-painted by Krebs in Germany and lined with sterling silver. Cost: £45
